THE LIBRARY.-The regular monthly meeting of the Directors of the Alexandria Library Company was held last night, S. H. Janney. President, in the chair. Reports from the various standing committees were received, and subcommittees appointed in reference to a proposed excursion, during the summer, to Occoquan; to dispose of the odd volumes and books of no use in the Library, and in reference to a revision and publication of the catalogue of books. A very satisfactory and encouraging report of the financial condition of the institution was made by the Treasurer, and an order was adopted directing the purchase of additional books. It was also determined that those persons who have not yet renewed their subscriptions should be denied the further use of the books until such subscription is paid up, and the subscribers hereafter will be permitted to take from the Library, for one week, at a time, the various periodicals, after they shall have been on the tables ten days. The Librarian reports that calls for books have greatly increased, and the number of visitors to the Library is consideraby in excess of what it has been heretofore. The prospects of the Library, it is very gratifying to know, are brighter than they have been for many years, and with proper encouragement, the usefulness of the institution can be greatly enhanced.

CATHOLIC BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.-The annual Convention of this association, composed of delegates from the branch societies of the State, will assemble at Bauman's Hall on Wednesday, the 12th instant. Seats will be reserved for the ladies. The St. Mary's Society of this place, on Sunday last, elected the following delegates to represent the society in the Convention: P. McCracken at large; Thomas Griffin. P. McCracken, chairman of the committee of reception, will deliver the address of welcome, and Mr. Kilgour, of Alexandria, President of the Union, will reply in behalf of the Union. It is expected that delegates will be present from Alexandria, Norfolk, Portsmouth. Richmond, Lynchburg and Martinsburg, and also from Petersburg, Staunton and Warrenton. - Fredericksburg Star.

FESTIVAL. - The festival of the ladies of St. Paul's Church, commenced at Sarepta Hall last night, and as anticipated, proves a great success. Indeed no other result was possible when it was known who were to manage the affair. A leading feature of the festival is the excellent style in which the delicacies of the season, such as lobsters, oysters, clams, crabs &c., are prepared. Lunch is served daily from twelve to two o'clock, and that so nice, as evidenced by the one sent to this office this morning, that a man though surfeited, would be tempted to ALEXANDRIA GRAYS. -At a meeting of the Alexandria Gays, held last night at their armory, in Stewart's building, Capt. Geo. R. Hill occupied the chair and J. M. Johnson was Secretary. About thirty members were present, all of whom paid their dues. Arrangements were completed for the citizens' meeting for the benefit of the company, to be held at Sarepta Hall next Wednesday night at half past eight o'clock, and the chair made a few appropriate remarks, urging the members to be present at that meeting, and exert their influence in bringing others there.

Low Tide. -The water in the Potomac, yesterday evening, was so low, owing to the high Northwest wind prevailing, that the flats on both sides of the river were entirely bare, and large numbers of men, women and children, irrespective of color and previous condition, were wading about in the mud catching the catfish that had been left by the receding tide. Baskets full of the fish were caught, and thus another exemplification was afforded of the truth of the assertion that "it's an ill wind that blows nobody good."

THE FISHERY.—The fishery of 1872 having closed, and the lease of the Fish wharf expired, the books of the agents, Messrs. Watkins, Cunningham, Avery, McLean and Cawood, exhibit the following receipts of fish during the season: 7,119,515 herring, 265,146 shad, 37,991 bunches of rock, perch and cat fish, 21,831 tailors, and 128 single rock - the latter being the largest size fish of that species. Though the total receipts greatly exceed those at Washington, the shad received at that city were more than 100,-000 in excess of the number landed here.

PROMOTIONS.-Mr. J. M. Thacher, now a resident of this city. will, it is believed, be appointed to succeed Gen. Duncan, assistant commissioner of pacents. The vacancy in the appeal board, made by the promotion of Mr. Thacher, will be filled by Gen. Spear, a resident of Alexandria county, now in charge of the division of civil engineering.

CREDITORS' MEETING .- A meeting of the creditors of the firm of M. Railroad will be laid by Saturday night. RAILROAD APPOINTMENT.-Mr. Jesse Lescalett, master machinest of the Alexandria and Washington Railroad, has received the same appointment on the Alexandria and Fredericks-

Mr. Brown was a leading grain merchant of this city, and member of the Commercial Exchange, a meeting of the members of which was held this morning to take action regarding his death. Col. C. F. Suttle was called to the chair, and John S. Green appointed Secretary. The Chair having stated the object of the meeting, on motion of Mr. Geo. R. Shinn, appointed the following committee to escort the remains from Culpeper Court House to Charlottesville, where they are to be interred, viz: Geo. R. Shinn, Allen Harmon, D. D. Gould, P. B. Hooe, John P. Robinson, John S. Knox, George Washington, J. T. Beckham, and Morton Marye. On motion of Capt. P. B. Hooe, the following named gentlemen were appointed a committee to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of the deceased: P. B. Hooe, H. S. Wattles, B. H. Lambert, G. Y. Worthington, and C. F. MECHANICS' HOME ASSOCIATION. - A regular meeting of the Mechanics' Home Association was held last night in the hall of the Friendship Fire Company, the President, Dr. J. B. Johnson, in the chair, and M. B. Harlow secretary. The committee on by-laws, through their chairman, A. W. Chilton, submitted a set, which were unanimously adopted. The committee on constitution were instructed to have one hundred copies of that instrument printed. Eighteen members paid their install ments. The meeting was numerously attended, and much interest was manifested in the success of the undertaking. The President stated that he would appoint a board of directors and trustees at the next meeting, and the secretary was instructed to collect the assessments upon the contributing members. The meeting then adjourned until next Wednesday night.

LOUDOUN FARMERS' CO-OPERATIVE ASSO-CIATION. - There was a meeting of this association, held at Hamilton, on Saturday, the attendance upon which was not large, and no business of special interest was transacted. Reports from committees heretofore appointed were made, but it was determined to defer action in reference to Railroad affairs, and a decided disposition was manifested to co-operate, in the future, with the W. & O. GRANT AND WILSON NOMINATED.

beautiful to day, and numerous flags are dis-played in all sectious in honor of the events to occur. This gives a bright and joyous appearance to the city. The streets are thronged with people. The Convention Hall was packed by ten o'clock, and thousands outside are waiting for the nomination, which is to be proclaimed by a salute from cannon posted on Broad street. PHILADELPHIA, June 6.—The Academy of Music was densely packed at 10 o'clock when the Convention re-assembled. Many ladies were present. The enthusiasm was immense. platform not having come in, there was some delay in opening the session.

It is understood there has been somewhat serious differences of opinion in the Committee. At 10:30 chairman Settle called the Convention to order and introduced Rev. Dr. Harper of Broad street church, Philadelphia, who spoke of the day as one which would be memorable in the future; a day which was to record another page in our national history; a day in which centered and around which clustered not merely the welfare, but possibly the destination of the nation. He prayed that the platform to be established should be the embodiment of wise and just and humane principles and that the man to be selected to bear the banner of the Republican party, and to fill the highest place of honor and trust in this land should be specially blessed, and that the efforts of the Convention should be crowned (loud cheers) N. Y., Edwin D. Morgan; (cheers) N. C., J. C. Abbott; Ohio, B. R. with glorious success.

After music by the band, the roll of States was called when the presence of each was announced by the chairman of the respective delegations. Here it was discovered that a hundred persons had obtained entrance surreptitiously to the hall, all of whom were expelled by the Sergeant-at Arms.

Mr. Devor, of Oregon, rose and said "Oregon is redeemed. She has gone republican. Last Monday an election was held. Four years we T. Jones. have been under democratic rule; now we are republican in representatives and the Legislature. Three cheers for Oregon."

Mr. Oliver Ames, of Mass., from the committee on Rules and Order of Business, re-FOR EUROPE.—Among the passengers on ported that the States are to be called in alphabetical order; each State shall be entitled to double its Senatorial and Congressional votes according to the recent apportionment; the report of the committee on credentials first and the Piatform to be disposed of before the nomination; the roll call should not be dispensed with on the nominations; and when a majority shall be given for any candidate and shall apvention "shall the nomination be unanimous." In case of a divided delegation, the chairman shall state the vote in detail for each candidate or proposition; the rules of the House of Representatives be adopted; but only five minute speeches, except by the consent of the convention, except that in the nomination of candidates, ten minute speeches be allowed; the National Committee to be named by the respective States. Unanimously adopted. Mr. Pendleton, of Iowa, from the Committee on credentials, reported that all the States and Territories are represented in full; there are no contests except Dakota and Utah.

In the case of Dakota they admit all four delegates with two votes between them; in the case of Utah they admit the Hollister-Gould delegates.

PHILADELPHIA, June 6.—The Gentile delegation from Utah, whose claims to seats are admitted sustain their application in a strong paper presented to the Convention. It says. 'In explanation of our claims to seats in the Convention we would recall to your minds the declaration of the National Republican Convention of 1856, to wit: "That it is both the period fixed for adjournment, next Monday, right and the duty of Congress to prohibit in and they will find either active or passive asthe territories those twin relics of barbarism, here yesterday evening from Baltimore, did polygamy and slavery." Polygamy, upon polygamy and slavery. Polygamy upon which Mormon polity is based is utterly into the least with and repugnant to the genius of republican institutions, combining in the lington dispatch says it is positively asserted in HAY, GRAIN & MILL FEED, SEEDS, &c., GOLDEN WEDDING.—The golden wedding of Mr. James Entwisle will be celebrated tonight at that gentleman's residence, an north Royal street.

position to polygamy is republicanism in the best sense as well as in the party sense of the word. Now, then a delegation representing the request be persisted in that his release will that institution, polygamy, the unAmerican be made because he is an American citizen, superstructure reared upon it in Utah, as the demand will not be granted. Messrs. Smith and Fuller do, can have the face to demand admission in a Republican Convention, is only less conceivable than would be if it were possible, the recognition of this demand as just. Mr. Smith is the alternate of Mr. Fitch, (who is not here, because he has determined to support Greeley,) and is the first announced having deferred their departure un-Vice-President of the Mormon Church, eudowed with many wives—so-called. Fuller ding the band going to America have been reis not a Mormon in belief, but only for ceived in Liverpool. pay. He is a representative in Congress elect of the would be Mormon State organized last winter; and that is his reward for faithful, if inefficient, service. Mr. Fitch is their Senator elect, and he flew the Grant track because he found the President unalterably opposed to the admission of Utah under existing circumstances; and therefore he could secure his prospective seat in the Senate only by defeating the re-election of Grant. On the other hand, we represent the anti-polygamists of Utah, the only national party in that territory. In the presence of polygamy all self-respecting men in Utah have been forced to be republican, and in that capacity have acted politically since only political organization and action were possible there with the representatives of the national authority as their national leaders; because polygamy and Mormonism being interchangeable terms, is in direct and unequivocal conflict with the national authority. It is Mormon policy and power against the national policy and power, and, in the face of this vital issue, all minor questions are lost sight of for the time being. There is but one party among the Mormons, and that embraces them all. It is a perpectual opposition party. Its religious as well as political creed is opposition. In 1857 it broke out into open rebellion, and during the late war for the Union Utah dominated by this party alone, of all the States and territories, did not place soldiers in the field, but prayed for the distruction of the North and the South alike with perfect impartiality. Prior to the inauguration of President Grant, and the completion of the Pacific railroad, the Gentiles, as the non Mormons are called, were few in number, and their leaders, the representatives of national authority, being generally on the fence. They had no organization. The odds were too great, the task too hopeless, but at the municipal elec tion of Salt Lake City in April 1870, a Central Executive Committee was appointed by a mass July 1870. Among the proceedings of that reported. Convention were the adoption of a platform, the leading features of which were in antagonism to polygamy, and the theocracy built upon it, and the election of a Territorial Executive Committee for the ensuing ten years. All our general elections since that time have been held under the auspices of that committee, and the name of its chairman, J. M. Orr, and of its Secretary, Wm. Spicer, are appended, with the names of others, including all the representatives of the administration in that territory to the call of the Convention which elects us to this Convention. In conclusion we respectfully represent that we cannot see how a National Republican Convention could recognize polygamy by the admission to seats of Messrs. Smith and Fuller, without self-stulification, without placing a premium on disloyalty, and quasi rebellion, without doing great injustice to the loyal people of Utah and outraging the sense of decency, as well as the true Republicanism of ment of PHILADELPHIA, June 6.—The weather is the entire nation in that distinction as to party.
